

Destructive investigations consist in drilling the lining.
They are essential in any case to calibrate non destructive investigations.

- Windows
- Core boring
- Destructive exploratory boring using an endoscope
- Digital data logging devices for borehole parameters
- Permeability tests
- In situ mechanical test
- in situ stress measurements
- Lab tests